

SKINOPATHY

Flutter Developer Coop Student Opportunity

Skinopathy is revolutionizing the future of dermatology.

We provide with real-world and real-time solutions on how to screen, triage, track, and manage all skin conditions, including skin cancers.

Our work is already helping doctors provide better care for more patients; helping individuals control their own health; and helping researchers and industry access to compliant and interoperable health data.

And we are growing!

OUR CULTURE

As a young startup born during the pandemic, we have developed a culture where people work from home, both independently and within teams. We rely heavily on Microsoft Teams and expect everyone to agile and pivot at a moment's notice.

It is also essential that security measures and privacy regulations are always followed since we work closely with sensitive information, including trade secrets, patents, and personal health information. You will need to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

We are looking for someone who can contribute to the mobile application development team. Your responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

- Working closely with a team of software engineers to design, develop, and test the mobile applications.
- Establishing and maintaining best practices/standards for all things the end users touch and see.
- Building reusable code and libraries for future use.
- Accurately translating user and business needs into functional code.
- Interacting with our custom API.
- Participating in code reviews and scrum meetings.

We use an API to communicate with our back-end

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Experience in designing, building, maintaining web applications
- Experience with React is required (non-negotiable)
- Experience with UX/UI and Flutter is considered a bonus.
- Familiarity using Scrum/Agile development methodologies.

We have built our own unique DSL for doctors from scratch and you will be contributing to its development.

If you're interested, please send a submit a resume.

Compensation commensurate with experience.
